

The Prophet for Profit
Numbers 22-24

Sunday, June 27, 2021

Jay Vincent

We all think of the Old Testament Prophets as being people of high character and eager to serve the Lord. Some are reluctant, some are troubled and some are hunted by evil rulers. Today we look at a Prophet who truly causes us to ask where did this guy come from as we look at Balaam the Wrong-Headed Prophet.

1. Getting to know the Neighborhood and their concerns.
Num 22:1-4a, Deut. 2:2-9; Genesis 19:37, Joshua 2:8-11
2. The plot to foil God's plan. Num 22:4b-7; 2 Peter 2:15;
1 Samuel 28;
3. The testing and restoration of Balaam. Numbers 22:8-38;
John 10:4, 27; Psalms 66:18; 1 John 1:9

Food for thought: How does this relate to me?

1. What is God telling us to do and what are we ignoring or not hearing and obeying?
2. To whom or to what are we listening that makes us unable to hear or see God at work in our lives?

The Prophet for Profit
Numbers 22-24

Sunday, June 27, 2021

Jay Vincent

We all think of the Old Testament Prophets as being people of high character and eager to serve the Lord. Some are reluctant, some are troubled and some are hunted by evil rulers. Today we look at a Prophet who truly causes us to ask where did this guy come from as we look at Balaam the Wrong-Headed Prophet.

1. Getting to know the Neighborhood and their concerns.
Num 22:1-4a, Deut. 2:2-9; Genesis 19:37, Joshua 2:8-11
2. The plot to foil God's plan. Num 22:4b-7; 2 Peter 2:15;
1 Samuel 28;
3. The testing and restoration of Balaam. Numbers 22:8-38;
John 10:4, 27; Psalms 66:18; 1 John 1:9

Food for thought: How does this relate to me?

1. What is God telling us to do and what are we ignoring or not hearing and obeying?
2. To whom or to what are we listening that makes us unable to hear or see God at work in our lives?